

AUTHORITY TO PROCESS REMITTANCES

Standing instructions to process Money Transfer/s requests received on telephone, fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication.

- GMT Money Transfer & Exchange (GMT) may from time to time accept requests from (Customer's Full Name) _____ to process money transfer transaction/s by telephone, fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication.
- When GMT receive and accept requests by telephone, fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication, GMT is deemed to assume that such communication is apparently sent from the customer and that such request has been given by the customer.
- In such circumstances, the customer is agreeing to indemnify GMT against: All such claims which GMT and or any third party may otherwise suffer or incur any damage, loss or expense (directly or indirectly);
- And GMT electing not acts upon any instructions purporting to be from the customer (by telephone fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication) provided that GMT reasonably considers or suspects that such Instructions have been fraudulently or mistakenly communicated to GMT or contain material omission or errors.
- Customer acknowledges that instructions given on phone will subsequently be confirmed within reasonable time in writing by fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication. However failing to confirm in writing by customer by fax, email, on-line system or any other secured net based means of communication will not evade his/her responsibility and shall agree to indemnify any claim, damage, loss or expense, which GMT and/or any third party may suffer or incur (directly or indirectly) as a result of or in connection with, GMT acting upon any instructions received on phone and purporting to be from the customer.
- This authority will remain in force until GMT or Customer cancels it in writing and Acknowledges by the counter party.
